ICX

Our approach in every case is a simple one.

Since the beginning, our values have remained constant: to satisfy our clients' needs with the highest degree of efficiency, cost-effectiveness and integrity. While our success is measured by achieving our clients' goals, we have been honored to have our firm and our attorneys consistently recognized for our outstanding work and community service.

FIRM PROFILE AND HISTORY

Irving, Carlson & Xavier LLP is a law firm with an impressive and respected history spanning more than 40 years. Throughout its existence, ICX has remained committed to the original mission of excellence in practicing law, responsiveness to clients, and the provision of public service upon which the Firm was established.

The Firm's beginnings date back to the 1970s when Nicholas Irving opened his solo law office in downtown Manhattan. The son of a Dutchess County farmer, he had practiced as both an in-house counsel and a member of a larger firm before following his entrepreneurial instincts. While he was teaching a securities law seminar, he met Samuel Carlson, a student at Columbia Law School. Upon graduating in 1978, Carlson joined Irving in practice formed a partnership of Irving and Carlson.

EXPERIENCE. EDUCATION. COMMITMENT.
